Interpersonal Communications in ADR Divorce Negotiations
Presented by the Center for Principled Family Advocacy
June 18-19, 2009

Course Description ~
Interpersonal Communications in ADR Divorce Negotiations is open to all attorneys, law students, mental health professionals, and financial professionals who are interested in learning to work as part of a team that assists a divorcing couple in their journey through the divorce process without litigation and high conflict.

The training will provide participants with strategies to build trust with clients as well as help clients improve and manage their own communication skills in emotional situations. Emphasis will be placed on listening, verbal and nonverbal messages, non-defensive responses, and conflict style. The training will utilize analyses of actual and simulated Alternate Dispute Divorce cases both in the one on one and four way interactions. This training is great for all ADR processes.

Trainer ~
Jacqueline J. Schmidt, PhD.

Location ~
Eton Tower
28601 Chagrin Boulevard
Cleveland, Ohio 44122

Times ~
Thursday, June 18
8:00 am to 4:30 pm
Friday, June 19
8:00 am to 4:30 pm

Cost ~
$260 for CPFA members
$460 for non-members
$100 for Court employees
(includes lunch, materials and certification)

Continuing Education Credits (*pending) ~
*12 CLE Credits (State of Ohio)

REGISTRATION
Complete and mail along with the applicable payment, payable to “The Center for Principled Family Advocacy”, c/o John D. Sayre, Esq., 25 W. Prospect Ave., Republic Bldg., Cleveland, OH 44115-1048.

Name ~ ______________________________ Profession ~ ______________________________
Firm Name ~ __________________________ Telephone ~ __________________________
Address ~ ______________________________________________________________________
Email ~ ______________________________ License # (for CEU/CLE credit) ~ ____________
CPFA member? Yes or No Amount Enclosed ~ ______________________________

Act now to register—Limited spaces available. Cancellation deadline is June 1, 2009.
Questions? Please call Brian Urban, 216.241.4244